Form 990, Part III, Line 4b - Program Service Accomplishments

Outreach and Advocacy: An important part of our mission is to promote safe conditions for bicyclists and pedestrians, while encouraging bicycling for all purposes and for all people. We meet regularly with public officials and agency representatives in 36 jurisdictions within San Mateo and Santa Clara counties to promote convenient and safe bicycle infrastructure. We continue to work to get bike lanes and other safety measures for bicyclists installed. We convene volunteer teams in several geographic areas to advise on local needs of bicycle infrastructure and policy change. In 2021-22, our local teams of advocates in San Jose, Mountain View, Palo Alto, and Redwood City continued to meet regularly to discuss issues of local importance. Some issues, such as e-scooter regulations, bike access on Caltrain, and equity in the bicycling movement, made their way to our Policy Advisory Committee to be discussed and recommended for further action by SVBC staff. We hosted our seventh annual Silicon Valley Bike Summit, which brings together professionals, advocates, politicians, and public agency employees in a community event focused on planning for health, environmental security, and enhanced communities. The Summit featured speakers from state and international bicycling organizations as well as local agency staff and bike bloggers. We worked with the San Mateo County Transportation Agency to increase transportation funding through 2049 Measure W and ensured that additional funding would be appropriated to bicycle and pedestrian infrastructure. The SVBC works strategically in broad advocacy initiatives that will help achieve the set goal to see a 10% increase of trips by bike by 2025, furthering the mission to create a healthy community, environment, and economy through bicycling in San Mateo and Santa Clara Counties.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - Other Program Services Description

Bike Clinic: The San Jose Bike Clinic is a volunteer-run fiscally sponsored program with goal of teaching bike repair and maintenance skills to interested community members and to encourage bicycle culture in the local area. The Bike Clinic was able to rent a space in downtown San Jose where they hold clinics four evenings a week. We worked with the City of San Jose to help plan and market Viva Calle San Jose, an open-streets program consisting of events that temporarily close long segments of city streets to vehicle traffic, making them fully accessible to people moving by foot, bike, scooter, skateboard, or any other means of non-motorized travel. We do valet bike parking at numerous venues throughout the year, a service that promotes ridership by making sure people's bikes are safe when they ride to events. We worked with the bike coalitions in San Francisco and East Bay on a program to make sure that the new bike share program is accessible to low-income communities.
