MEDIA ADVISORY
Bike to Work Day Bay Area 2019 Celebrates Silver Anniversary

SAN JOSE, Calif. – Bike to Work Day Bay Area is turning 25!

Join us in downtown San Jose on Thursday, May 9 for a short program starting at 7:15 a.m. featuring City of San Jose Mayor Sam Liccardo, Santa Clara Valley Transportation Authority, Silicon Valley Bike Coalition and presenting sponsor, Alaska Airlines.

From Better Bikeways in San Jose to $250 million in dedicated 2016 Measure B funding for bicycle and pedestrian programs in Santa Clara County, hear about the efforts changing local transportation.

Opening remarks will be followed by a 7-mile "Movers and Shakers Ride" along the scenic Guadalupe River Trail to VTA headquarters at 3331 North First Street.

This event is open to the public. Participants of all ages are welcome to join for part or all the ride. Sponsored Energizer Stations at the starting point and along the route will keep participants fueled.

WHEN: Thursday, May 9, 7:15 am
WHERE: Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Library, 150 E. San Fernando St, San Jose (starts) VTA Headquarters, 3331 N. First Street, San Jose (ends)
WHO: San Jose Mayor Sam Liccardo; VTA General Manager and CEO Nuria Fernandez; Silicon Valley Bike Coalition Executive Director Shiloh Ballard; and Annabel Chang, VP of Alaska Airlines (Bay Area)
